Tissue Paper Cross:

What You Need: Plain paper, crayons, glue, tissue paper or construction paper squares

During the Activity: Let your kids use the tissue paper to make a cross on their paper.

Before the Activity: "We heard an amazing Bible story today. Jesus is alive!"

During the Activity: "Use the crayons to draw a cross in your paper. Then let's use the tissue paper squares to glue inside of the cross. We are going to remember parts of our story as we make our colorful crosses."

After the Activity: "Jesus isn't on the cross anymore because He is alive! When Jesus came back, He went to His friends so they could see that He is alive. Then His friends told other people, and they told other people, and they told other people . . . and some of the people wrote stories about seeing Jesus alive! It was amazing!"

"Now, we can read what they wrote in the Bible and know all about Jesus!"

"Dear God, thank You that Your Son, Jesus, came back and is alive today. Thank You that He wants to be everyone's friend forever. I pray each person here will believe in Jesus and follow Him. We love You, God. In Jesus' name, amen."
